

City May Bid on Ambulance Used At Joliet Arsenal

In the hope of finding a suitable ambulance to replace the antiquated model now used by the police department, Mayor Arthur O. Janke, Commissioner Fred Sehring and Motor Engineer George Vollmer were to inspect three ambulances at the Joliet Arsenal at 3:30 p. m. this afternoon.

If the used ambulances are in suitable condition, the city will place a bid for one of the machines.